Subject: Water Supply Interruptions Due to Bulk Pipeline Leak

Magalies Water hereby informs customers receiving water supply from Wallmannsthal supply scheme that due to a pipe leak, augmentation supply from the Roodeplaat Water Treatment Plant has been temporarily suspended. Consequent to this action, which seeks to prevent water loss Wallmannsthal reservoirs have regrettably reached critically low levels.

Repairs will be implemented early tomorrow morning given the work required to rehabilitate the section of the pipeline which has a leak. Augmented supply will resume tomorrow afternoon as soon as repairs have been completed, after which the scheme will be monitored until it has stabilized.

Magalies Water apologizes for the inconvenience that this may cause.
